Help for Moms (and Dads) During Treatment

Mommy Moments, Inc. is a licensed staffing service in Atlanta providing quality in-home child care for families with short and long-term childcare needs. But unlike other staffing services, Mommy Moments treats moms (and dads) who are undergoing cancer treatment very special. Their "Special Moms" program is designed to provide 20 hours of free in-home childcare for parents in cancer treatment to help bridge some of the childcare challenges that many face when they are not feeling well.

All Mommy Moments staff have undergone an intensive screening process, criminal background check, and are paid their regular rate for these assignments (i.e. they are not volunteers). Mari Scrutchins, owner of Mommy Moments, credits the generosity of private sponsors and donors that allow her to offer this program completely free of charge to moms (and dads) in need.
